ADDRESSES OUTLINE PROGRESS MADE IN ALL THE TYPES OF ALABAMA SCHOOLS

Various Classes of Education Institutions Have Day at Convention

FIFTEEN UNIT RULE IS ADOPTED BY COLLEGES

Puts an End to the Admission of Any Students Constitutionally

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., March 26.—Alabama's various classes of educational institutions had their day at the fortieth annual convention of the Alabama Educational Association Friday when Alabama Day was celebrated with short talks at the general session on the work being done by the various institutions. The entire morning session was devoted to this celebration, while the afternoon was given over wholly to departmental sessions during which the annual conventions of the various departments and auxiliaries of the association were held.

The morning session was one of the most interesting features of the entire convention, all teachers being able through the short addresses to link together the work now being done by all educational institutions. Those who appeared on the program were:

Leo H. King, professor of secondary education of the university; Leo E. A. Seidla, assistant professor of English; at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute; Mrs. Susan Kirkman Vaughn, professor of history at the Florence normal school; Dean Fred Kirkland Fleagle of Marion Institute, who represented the private institutions; Edward Houston Wills, who appeared as the representative of the Alabama Technical Institute and College for Women at Montevallo; Frederick H. Manning, superintendent of the deaf, dumb and blind institute at Talladega; Joseph T. Yeager, principal of a rural school in Culver county, who represented those institutions; Omer Carmichael, principal of the Selma public schools, who represented the high schools; Miss Esther Lee Rider of Montgomery, who appeared for the state child welfare commission; Dr. P. B. Glasgow, president of the Athens college, who represented denominational schools and colleges, and Miss Luce Gage of George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville, who made an address on primary education.

The evening session Friday was devoted to the consideration of plans whereby teachers may assist in the improvement of the health of the children of Alabama. Interesting addresses were delivered by Dr. John W. Carr, director of physical education of Franklin, Ky., and Dr. W. A. Evans, professor of sanitary science of the Northwestern school of medicine of Chicago. Dr. Carr's subject was "Education of the Child Below the Eyebrows" while the subject selected by Dr. Evans was "Better Health Through Schools."

Dr. M. W. Swarts, president of the Woman's College of Alabama at Montgomery, was elected president of the Alabama Association of Colleges at the fourteenth annual convention which was held Friday. He will succeed William E. Bohannon of Howard college, who served during the past year.

Dr. Paul Keaton of Judson college was named vice-president and Dr. J. D. Doster of the University was again elected secretary and treasurer.

One of the important acts of the association was the adoption of the fifteen units requirement for entrance to all colleges of the state next year. This will put an end to the admission of conditional students and will mean that no person can enter who does not possess the requisite fifteen units. However, this is a concession as the requirement for admission without condition heretofore has been sixteen units instead of fifteen.

TWO REPORTED SAVED

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, March 26—Prohibition Commissioner Kramer today announced that 500 original farm permits to purchase intoxicating liquors were stolen from the New York office of the prohibition director on the night of March 2.

PERMITS STOLEN

(International News Service) PENSACOLA, FLA., March 26.—An unconfirmed rumor in naval circles at 10 o'clock this morning has it that two of the missing balloonists have been saved and the others are lost in the gulf. It is rumored the two men were picked up by a merchant vessel bound for New Orleans.

BREAK IN TRANSMISSION LINE CAUSED DELAY IN PUBLICATION OF FRIDAY'S EDITION OF DAILY

For the first time in its history The Albany-Decatur Daily was published Saturday morning as a "morning paper." The Friday edition, which was delayed because of a break in the transmission line of the Alabama Power company, was published early Saturday.

The management of The Daily regrets that it was unable to serve its patrons on time Friday, but the conditions which necessitated the delay were beyond its control. Additional regret falls to the lot of The Daily because Friday was the first day in its more than nine years of existence that it has failed to publish. Because of accidents of one nature or another, The Daily more than once has been forced to go to press crippled, but never before (and never again we hope) has The Daily failed to make its appearance during the afternoon or early evening.

The many inquiries regarding "their paper" received from subscribers, attesting the interest with which the columns of this newspaper are scanned, was a source of pleasure.

The edition published this morning was received with the same degree of interest, comments and the number of calls for copies indicated.

Again the management expresses its regret for Friday's delay and trusts that it will not occur again.

WATER COMPANY IS REQUESTED TO KEEP REQUIRED TO MODIFY RESTRAINING ORDER ITS REGULATIONS TRIAL IN MARION CO.

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 26.—An order was issued by the Alabama Public Service Commission this afternoon requiring the Alabama Water company to modify its rules for water service in Albany and Decatur so as to levy one charge against buildings wherein more than one family makes their residence, but to assess excess charge according to meter measurement in lieu of the minimum rate for each family within the building.

STRIKES SPREAD IN GERMAN FACTORIES

(International News Service)

BERLIN, March 26.—Strikes are spreading throughout the factories in Berlin. A great number of mass meetings of communists are being held in different suburbs of Berlin this afternoon.

Advices reaching here at noon today, said that fighting again had broken out at Eiselen between Communists and government troops. The government forces were said to have been victorious but heavy casualties were suffered on both sides.

Fighting broke out in Berlin this afternoon when a mob of 400 persons tried to intimidate employees of the Berlin gas works and force them to go out on a strike. The attempt failed. The employees remained at work and the mob was dispersed after a battle with company guards and the police.

Greek Troops in Another Advance

ATHENS, Greece, March 26.—Greek troops, who launched an offensive against the Turks Wednesday, are continuing their advance all along the line, it was officially announced today. The Greek forces now occupy a line extending from Arvader to Touloukenar.

Independents Win Opening Contest

The Albany high school went down in defeat before the Independents, a city league entry, in the opening game of the season here Friday afternoon. Ezell, who worked for the Independents, had the high at his mercy and allowed only two hits.

The score by innings follows: R Independents 2 2 0 0 0 2 1 9 High school 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries: Ezell and Humphrey; Evans, Wilson and Humphrey.

Next week the Independents will play the American Legion.

CHARGES FILED AGAINST SHERIFF IN HIGHEST COURT

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., March 26.

—Impeachment proceedings were filed in the supreme court Friday against John Strength, sheriff of Elmore county, charging wilful neglect of duty, corruption in office and the use of intoxicating liquors to such an extent as to unfit him for the discharge of his official duties. The articles of impeachment were filed by Harwell G. Davis, attorney-general, and Judge Horace C. Wilkinson of Birmingham, special counsel for the state. They follow the refusal of the grand jury of Elmore county to prefer charges against the sheriff.

The state sought to have the grand jury recommend the impeachment several months ago but after an investigation which continued several days the grand jury refused to vote in favor of the recommendation. It had not been known until Friday that the state intended to pursue the case further.

Various and sundry charges are made against the sheriff in support of the application for his removal from office. Among those coming under the general head of wilful neglect of duty were:

Refusal to seize an automobile belonging to Haig Adams although having the knowledge that the vehicle was being used in the handling of intoxicating liquors.

Refusal to allow the arrest of a man named Godwin, charged with distributing liquor, although a valid warrant had been preferred against him.

Failure to file with the county treasury a report of money collected by the sheriff's department within the time required by law.

Giving instructions to John Spivey when appointed deputy sheriff that no arrests were to be made for violating the prohibition laws.

Failure to separate males and females confined in the Elmore county jail.

Under the head of corruption in office, the following charges are made against Sheriff Strength:

The arrest of Charley Miller, the extraction from him of $20 or $23 and then his liberation.

Failure to keep males and females separated in the county jail. (Under this charge various allegations were made, including the charge that Sheriff Strength permitted the confinement of males and females in the same cells for illegal purposes.)

That at divers times and divers places divers persons were arrested on divers charges and released from custody on the payment of divers amounts. (The same allegations are made in regard to the collection of pistols from persons arrested.)

Under the head of using intoxicating liquors, the state charged that at various times Sheriff Strength had appeared in public in an intoxicated condition and that his use of intoxicants had unfitted him, in view of the dignity and importance of his office, for the performance of his duties in the future.

The supreme court had not selected a date for the trial of the case when the clerk's office closed Friday afternoon.

MANY SCHOOLS TO CLOSE TERM DURING MONTH

A number of the smaller rural schools in Morgan county will bring their terms to a close this month, funds appropriated for their maintenance by the county have been expended during the five months of existence, it became known here today.

The schools in the Twin Cities, Hartselle, Falkville, Eva, Ryans Cross Roads, Trinity, Center Grove and several other points will not be affected, it was stated.

The board of education of the county, it is understood, decided it was better to curtail the school terms rather than risk the continuation of estimated funds which might not be collected in time for use this year.

Information is Asked of Youth

Postmaster T. H. Alexander is in receipt of a letter from W. H. Williams, Wadley, Ala., Route 3, requesting information regarding his son, Horner Williams, who left home to come to Albany, the letter states.

Young Williams was working on a boat in the Twin Cities the last time heard from, his father says, but the latter does not remember the name of the boat. The youth is described as about 16 years of age; weighing about 160 pounds; five feet four inches in height; with light hair and blue eyes.

RAIN LIKELY ON EASTER FINERY SAYS FORECAST

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 26.—It may or may not rain on tomorrow's Easter finery, but Uncle Sam's official forecaster today gave warning that everyone from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf better be prepared for showers.

In the East, he predicts the weather will be unsettled and warmer with probable showers.

MANY SEEK JOB AS HIGH RUM BOSS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 26—Out of the political pot comes bad news for the sick in need of beer or wine.

The struggle to determine who shall get the job of high boss in the matters of rum, today threatened long delay in expected beer and wine regulations.

Secretary Mellon was not prepared to recommend a new internal revenue commissioner, who will have general charge of dry law enforcement. He indicated that a big field of candidates for the place has made the question of an appointment more difficult.

Dry law chiefs under the old regime are marking time, waiting for their successors to qualify.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT TO SETTLE STRIKE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 26—Prospects for settlement of labor troubles among marine workers on coastwise tug boats are bright, F. F. Davis, conciliator, today wired Secretary of Labor Davis.

All workers have now returned to work, except those in the Norfolk district. Secretary Davis is hopeful that the controversy will be finally settled without any further interruption in coastwise transportation.

Under the head of corruption in office, the following charges are made against Sheriff Strength:

The arrest of Charley Miller, the extraction from him of $20 or $23 and then his liberation.

Failure to keep males and females separated in the county jail. (Under this charge various allegations were made, including the charge that Sheriff Strength permitted the confinement of males and females in the same cells for illegal purposes.)

That at divers times and divers places divers persons were arrested on divers charges and released from custody on the payment of divers amounts. (The same allegations are made in regard to the collection of pistols from persons arrested.)

Under the head of using intoxicating liquors, the state charged that at various times Sheriff Strength had appeared in public in an intoxicated condition and that his use of intoxicants had unfitted him, in view of the dignity and importance of his office, for the performance of his duties in the future.

The supreme court had not selected a date for the trial of the case when the clerk's office closed Friday afternoon.

FRENCH OFFICIALS SILENT ON CHARGE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 26.—While French orators may seek to incite their countrymen over the enormous revolutionary debts, which they assert are owed France by the United States, the French government apparently is not concerning itself with the matter.

Officials said today no inquiry direct or indirect had been received in this country, relative to the charges which have been made in the French parliament.

"Political claptrap for home consumption" would be an apt American description of the matter, according to officials.

There will be called meeting of the Central Labor Union Monday night, at 7:30 o'clock. There is important business to be discussed, it was stated, and the attendance of every delegate was urged. The call was signed by President H. O. Cline.

TRANSMISSION LINE IS BLOWN AGAINST TELEPHONE WIRES

The Twin Cities were without lights nor electrical power from 2:45 to nearly ten o'clock Friday as a result of an unusual accident to the long transmission line of the Alabama Power company from the Coosa river.

The high wind which visited the Paint Rock valley section Friday blew the transmission line across the lines of the American Telephone company, officials here stated, just after the regular patrol had left the scene of the accident. After the trouble was located it was necessary to get in touch with the line patrol and send him back to the scene.

Street car service in Huntsville and in the Twin Cities was suspended, but Huntsville was furnished a limited service by the Merrimack mills plant, it was stated here.

For the first time in its history The Albany-Decatur Daily was published Saturday as a "morning paper." The Friday afternoon edition was delivered to subscribers early Saturday. Officials of the Alabama Power company stated the line had been repaired and no further trouble is anticipated.

Dissolution of the Third Internationale and the recall of the agents of that organization in this and other countries may be demanded by the United States as one of the conditions to resumption of trade with Soviet Russia, it was learned today.

With the reply of Secretary Hughes to the Soviet appeal well on its way to Moscow, official Washington today figuratively sat down to await Lenin's answer, though State Department officials devoted themselves to a study of just what might constitute the "convincing evidence of fundamental changes in Russian policy," which the American government deems essential to the establishment of trade relations.

Suppression of the Third Internationale has been suggested to Secretary Hughes as one of the terms this government should insist upon as an evidence of good faith and it is understood the suggestion is receiving consideration.

Though Lenin has asserted that the Third Internationale is not the Soviet government, State Department officials insist that they are the same for all practical purposes.

The State Department has announced receipt of confirmation of Lenin's recent speech in which he stated the time was not convinced. Since practically the sole purpose of the Third Internationale, according to the department's belief, is the promotion of ideas which this government finds objectionable, no better proof of a new policy could be given by Lenin than the dispersal of this organization.

COMMITTEES WILL OPEN DRIVE MONDAY

Committees will begin work in Albany Monday in the "Cleanest City" contest, it was announced today by officials heading the campaign.

The importance of cleaning up was stressed by leaders from two viewpoints. The first—health; the second—safety from fire losses.

Albany was entered in the state contest last year, but lost and leaders of the campaign here are determined to make a much better showing in 1921. "We are in the campaign to win and nothing less will satisfy us," said Mayor E. C. Payne, who is taking an active interest in the work.

Mr. Wilson is still upset and considerably weakened by the attack, but a speedy recovery is looked for Dr. Grayson stated.

Wilson Recovering From Light Attack

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Former President Wilson is recovering from the attack of indigestion which he suffered yesterday, Dr. Grayson stated today after visiting the former chief executive.

Mr. Wilson is still upset and considerably weakened by the attack, but a speedy recovery is looked for Dr. Grayson stated.

L. & N. Workers Policing Tracks

Local officials of the Louisville and Nashville railroad are taking an active interest in the participation of the Twin Cities in the statewide "Cleanest City" contest and Saturday morning a crew of men, under the direction of W. L. Jacobs, section foreman, began policing the Louisville and Nashville right of way and the passenger station.

The right of way of the road will be spick and span when the men have concluded their work, Mr. Jacobs declared.

THE EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS TO FACE GREAT DIFFICULTIES

It is to be hoped that the curse of partisanship will not rest upon the Congress when it meets April 11th. Because a mean brand of statesmanship was the possession of the last Congress, it left undone nearly every thing it was expected to do, from the ratification of the Versailles treaty, to making provision for Muscle Shoals.

When the national solons meet, they will be confronted by a government that is costing four billion dollars annually. A fourth of this amount goes to pay for past wars, nearly half of the four billion will be spent on armament and guns for future wars, leaving only about one fourth of the total taxes to return to the people, for what might be called legitimate expenditures.

The money to be spent for past wars, must go, that cannot be helped. But the nearly $2,000,000,000 meant for future wars should not be spent. Naturally as long as no provision is made to prevent wars, we must be prepared for all eventualities. Insurance against wars in the future can yet be taken out, and the present Congress should do so. If they do try to carry out a world wide peace program, first of all agreements must be sought with the leading nations and agreements made with them against wars, that can be enforced. Such business understandings, cannot be reached unless some such plans as Mr. Wilson offered is accepted.

Unless there is more patriotism and less partisanship in evidence in the extra session of Congress, than was the case wht the last one, nothing nearly like what Mr. Wilson stood for will even be considered.

If the new Congress gains the confidence of the country, it will have to do something about terminating the world war, other than making a separate peace with the Germans, and turning the whole world situation over to the secret diplomats of the old world. Unless something is done to insure the non-recurrence of a world war, and thus make it possible to reduce federal taxation, the Republicans will lose ground rapidly.

The Germans, in that they forced the war upon us, have multiplied our national outgo by just 19. As long as they are or any other people are left so they can again increase our taxes by another war, we can never breath free as a nation. We must reduce our armaments; but will we dare to do so unless the great nations are put under some kind of an "article X"?

Will the present Congress have the courage and the patriotism, to bind the nations together in a covenant of peace? This Congress will deal with the tariff question, and probably re-enact the tariff bill vetoed by Mr. Wilson. Then, unless the bill for armaments is reduced, the Congress must devise ways and means by which those war billions can be collected. When the big taxation law is made there will be great dissatisfaction.

MONEY AND THE PRESIDENCY

The scandalous part of the expenditures in the last presidential contest, now fully disclosed by the special senate investigating committee, was not in the expenditures during the campaign for election but in the campaign for nomination. And even here it is less the amounts than the use made of some of them that is shocking. Undoubtedly the public did not relish the size of the two-million-dollar barrel that was opened for General Wood, but the revelations concerning the use of a small sum of money in connection with one or two of Governor Lowden's delegates from Missouri were more damaging. The total of $8,000,000 spent by the Republicans in the election campaign is small beside some previous campaign expenditures. Its limited size is a tribute to the power of publicity.

This same publicity is evidently needed in reference to primary expenditures. We had it last year by accident. The Johnson supporters brought about the creation of the Senate investigating committee with the aim of killing the Wood boom. Publication of expenditures in Presidential primaries should not be left to accident. It should be made imperative by law. But mere publicity is not enough. There should be a Federal Corrupt Practices Act defining the ways in which money can lawfully be expended in Presidential primaries. Some states have such laws concerning their own primaries. These two provisions would go far toward rendering the use of money in Presidential primaries innocuous.—New York Evening Post.

WHY NOT PENSION THE EX-PRESIDENTS?

One of the minor considerations taken up by the extra session of Congress, called to convene April 11, might be the question of making an allowance for our ex-presidents. Of all the times this question has been discussed—and it has been up times without number—the present time is an especially good time to dispose of it. Our only ex-presidents happened to be members of the two dominant parties; one is a Democrat, the other is a Republican. If an effort were made to pension them during the present session of Congress, no charge of partiality or partisanship could be made. A Republican could vote to pension Mr. Wilson without criticism, and a Democrat could favor a pension for Mr. Taft without fear of censure, as both men would be benefited alike. Neither Mr. Taft nor Mr. Wilson is apt to come to if we are truly desirous of the increase of content.

It is having the right qualities of heart that makes one contented—such qualities as faith, justice, courage, and the love of the golden rule. But God alone has these qualities, therefore we must get them from Him. How would it do to ask Him for the gift of those qualities? We will want, of course. Both men are amply able to tentment.

take care of themselves. Already the professorship held by Mr. Taft at Yale University, yields him a comfortable income. And as Mr. Wilson was recently offered $150,000 for a small article, he can easily make a good living by the pen, or typewriter, as the case may be. Besides, Mr. Wilson decides to practice law for a living.

It would not seem out of place, however, for the nation to place their former chief executives in a position of comfort and independence. Relieved of all responsibility as to a livelihood, an ex-president could be of great value to the nation as an advisor and in many other ways. The immense amount of information necessarily accumulated by a president in four or eight years service would fit him admirably to give advice to his successors, and others high in the governmental service.

In military affairs, the retired generals are expected to hold themselves in readiness to serve in the army or navy at any time; why should not retired officers in civic affairs be looked to for expert advice on governmental questions? As retired officers of the army and navy are considered always a part of the military power of the nation, so could ex-presidents be looked upon as a part of the civil governmental pensioned, it might be with the understanding, that they should be ready and willing to aid the government at all times if called upon.—Tri-Cities Daily.

If you are a pro-man, there is no danger of you being any thing but a pro-American.

If the national congress is not careful, it will stage an all fool's day on the 11th of April.

This country has 35 persons to the square mile. Foolish question No. 971—How many square persons are there to the mile.

The occupants of a Pullman car while traveling through Texas, were held up and robbed by a bunch of bandits. The entire money value taken was something over $12. The porters, of course, were to blame. They got to the passengers before the regular robbers did.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

Do you wish increased contentment? Certainly, you do. Seek it not directly however, for it is not a possession. It is an attainment. It is more than a state of mind; it is a condition of spirit. The kind of contentment you have, reveals the brand of spirituality you enjoy. Always, contentment has been rightly considered as a religious asset, and none but religious people, even claim to be contented. St. Paul said that he "learned" to be content. He must have gone about acquiring contentment, just as people accomplish any thing else—with those materials and tools nearest at hand.

The Bible supports this idea. It says we should be content "with such things" as we have. "Having food and raiment, therewith to be content" is a very familiar scripture. Dr. John S. Park, now dead, and for years pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur, used to say, "I have studied this matter of contentment very carefully throughout a long life, and I have concluded that food and raiment are sufficient, and are all that we need to possess in order of lead contented lives." If Dr. Park was right all the people who are not in want, may be enjoying increased contentment. But how is such a state to be brought about? The answer—the key that unlocks the doors to the treasure house of contentment is found in another statement of St. Paul to the effect that "Godliness with contentment is great gain." If we turn the statement about and say "contentment with Godliness" the thought comes to us that Godly lives and contented lives are one and the same. In other words Godly people—people who are living and working in the great hope that they can practice Godliness—are on the high road to the castle of contentment!

Those who through faith and work—hope to see the divine image within them "restored" some sweet day live in a certain contentment every day. They live in the joy of expectancy and are content. Having noted the scripture grounds of contentment, let us notice some of the false or "worldly" attempts to secure satisfaction or contentment. Some seem to think that freedom from fear of the wolf at the door, insures contentment. But as such an assurance applies only to bodily needs, it cannot make our spirits content. Mind and nerve stability, do not come of "a sound mind in a sound body," or else all we would need would be a clear mind and a healthy body.

Because the human soul is ever aspiring, and because our Maker is always putting some new load upon us, and requiring some additional test at our hands—to have our souls placed in a perfect body—while it would help, would not give us increased contentment.

Sentimental agitation means only a temporary contentment. Learned and thoughtful exercises of the mind are no more contentment, than physical exercises are contentment. Bolstering up our beliefs, even by the use of scripture quotations, does not make us content.

Finally, let us answer again as to how we may be contented. Paul said he "learned" to be content. From whom did he learn it? From the Great Teacher, of course. Therefore if you really wish to increase your contentment, learn not only what the Master says but also learn to think and act like He did. You can learn contentment from Christ; and not only that, but you must learn it from Him. He is the only one that teaches that doctrine. He teaches that Godliness and contentment are one and the same.

Just as fast as you increase in Godliness, you will increase in contentment; but no faster. So the bigger hurry you are in to be content, the more anxious you will be to become Godlike in thought and deed.

It is having the right qualities of heart that makes one contented—such qualities as faith, justice, courage, and the love of the golden rule. But God alone has these qualities, therefore we must get them from Him. How would it do to ask Him for the gift of those qualities? We will want, of course. Both men are amply able to tentment.

NEWS OF HARTSELLE

(Special to The Daily.)

HARTSELLE, ALA., March 26.—

When sheep were plentiful in this section, about fifteen to sixteen years ago, there lived a man by the name of J. A. Haynes, near Poplar Log Cove south of Danville, who for sixteen years butchered and carried to Decatur, on an average of nineteen head of mutton each week.

A little figuring will reveal the fact that he carried sheep to market for 822 weeks. Sixteen years then reveals the fact that he marketed about sixteen thousand sheep. Mr. Haynes still lives in the same section of the country, but the years have taken a toll that made it impossible for him to lead the strenuous life as in those days.

About this time it was no uncommon sight to see from one to three hundred sheep being driven from the mountain districts to the railroad towns to be shipped. Sheep raising now is no longer a factor in that section of country.

Word was received today, that the

HIGH COST OF "FLOPS"

TAKES HEAVY FLOP

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 26.—The high cost of "flops," which during wartime prosperity reached 35 and even 50 cents, is down to 25 and 15 cents. All of which means that it is cheaper to be a "gentleman of leisure" now in Chicago since 200,000 unemployed have joined the order.

"The nickel flop of ante-bellum days soon will be back," prophesies Dr. Ben L. Reitman, medical director of the Hobo College.

"The best flops where a man has room to take off his shirt are down to 25 cents, and if the guest is willing to go out in the corridor for room in which to get out of his shirt he need pay only 15 cents. Prohibition and the approach of Spring will send the prices even lower, in my opinion."

Food From Many Lands

A miscellaneous line of food products may be encountered among the stores of the foreign quarters of a great city like New York. There are the black ripened eggs of the Orient. There are sausages little and sausages large, stuffed with oat breadstuff by the Scotch, with butter, lard and what not by the Italians. There are the sun-dried devil-fish from Greece, four-inch spreading oysters from Yznir, the jumbo walnuts of Chile and Manchuria—so on and so forth.

Sugar in India

The small Indian sugar grower makes no white sugar but simply boils down the juice and does not remove the molasses. The dark brown product is called gur or gul, and is generally sold and consumed, without refining, although in some parts of the country a certain amount of modern sugar production is carried on.

Indiana Lady Had Something Like Indigestion Until She Took Black-Draught, Then Got All Right.

SEYMOUR, Ind.—"Some time ago I had a sick spell, something like indigestion," writes Mrs. Clara Peacock, of Route 6, this place. "I would get very sick at the stomach, and spit or vomit, especially in the mornings."

"Then I began the use of Thedford's Black-Draught, after I had tried other medicines. The Black-Draught relieved me more than anything that I took, and I got all right."

"I haven't found anything better than Black-Draught when suffering from trouble caused by constipation. It is easy and sure. Can be taken in small doses or large, as the case calls for."

When you have sick stomach, indigestion, headache, constipation, or other disagreeable symptoms, take Black-Draught to help keep your system free from poison.

'WHILE NEW YORK SLEEPS'

The mightiest screen melodrama of all time, a picture of night life in the lights and shadows of the great metropolis. As Titanic as the city itself. As big in action and theme as the city whose life it portrays, with its millionaires, crooks, vamps, gunmen, gangsters and thieves. "Dolores," the famous Zeigfeld beauty does her wonderful dance with Zeigfeld's Follies in this picture.

The Brilliant Cast Includes—

Estelle Taylor, Marc McDermott, Henry Southern and Earl Metcalf.

ADMISSION: 10c, 35c and 50c

THE WATCHMAN

By L. M. Montgomery.

My Claudia, it is long since we have met,
So kissed, so held each other heart to heart!
I thought to greet thee as a conqueror comes,
Bearing the trophies of his prowess home.
But Jove hath willed it otherwise.
Jove say I? Nay, some mightier, stranger God,
Who thus hath laid his heavy hand on us,
No victor, Claudia, but a broken man,
Who seeks to hide his weakness in thy love.
How beautiful thou art! The years years have brought
An added splendor to thy loveliness,
With passion of dark eye and lip rose-red.
Struggling between its dimple and its pride,
And yet there is somewhat that gloom between,
Thy love and mine; come, girdle me about
With thy true arms and pillow on thy breast
This aching and bewildered head of mine;
Here, where the fountain glitters in the sun
Among the saffron lilies I will tell—
If so that words will answer my desire.
The shameful fate that hath befallen me.
Down in Jerusalem they slew, a man,
Oh God! It may be that he was a God
Those mad, wild Jews whom Pontius Pilate rules.

Thou knowest Pilate, Claudia—vain man,
Too weak to govern such a howling horde,
As those same Jews. This man they crucified.
I know naught of him—never heard his name,
Until the day they dragged him to his death;

Then all tongues wagged about him and his deeds;
Some said that he had claimed to be their king,
Some that he had blasphemed their deity.

Twas certain he was poor and meanly born,
No warrior he, nor hero; and he taught
Doctrines that surely would upset the world;

And so they killed him to be rid of him.
Wise, very wise, if he were only man
Not quite so wise if he were half a God.

I know that strange things happened when he died
There was a darkness and an agony
And some were vastly frightened—not so I!

What cared I if that mob of reeking Jews
Had brought a nameless curse upon their heads?

I had no part in that blood-quittingness
At least he died; and some few friends of his
Took him and laid him in a garden tomb.

A watch was set about the sepulchre,
Lest these his friends, should hide him and proclaim

That he had risen as he had foretold.
Laugh not, my Claudia, I laughed when I heard
The prophecy; I would I had not laughed!

I, Maximus, was chosen for the guard,
With all my trusty fellows, Pilate knew

I was a man who had no foolish heart
Of softness all unworthy of a man!
I was a soldier who had slain my foes;

My eyes had looked upon a tortured slave
As on a beetle crushed beneath my tread;

I gloried in the splendid strife of war,
Lusting for conquest; I had won the praise

Of our stern general on a scarlet field,
Red in my veins the warrior passion ran.

For I had sprung from heroes, woman born!
That second night we watched before the tomb;

My men were merry; on the velvet

SCREEN MELODRAMA PICTURES NEW YORK NIGHT LIFE

(Princess Monday and Tuesday)

Realism and fidelity to detail are two elements on which the Fox Film Corporation, producers of "While New York Sleeps" makes its bid for the success of this picture. The photomrama is divided into three acts.

The third episode depicts a tragedy of New York's East Side, in which the tense action revolves about a tigerish show girl, a dumb paralytic, his gentle, tender-hearted son and the gangster leader of a band of thieves. In this act occurs a river fight between the New York police boat and a gasoline launch containing members of the robber gang. The New York police assisted Director Charles J. Brabin to film this scene, in fact the police boat was actually manned by policemen.

ARREST LIMOUSINE POKER FOURSOME

(International News Service)

BOSTON, March 26.—A handsome limousine standing in Beacon street, Wahan, attracted the attention of a policeman. He paused to watch while, saw two men get out and walk twice around the car and then back inside.

Going closer, the officer peered inside and saw that the car held four men and that a forsome of poker was going forward merrily with real coins for chips. He arrested the four men.

John Jay, after having served as chief justice of the United States supreme court, became governor of New York and in his declining years refused re-appointment as chief justice.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE

XXVII.—FLORIDA

FLORIDA was considered America's first health resort. It was the search for a mythical Fountain of Perpetual Youth that led Ponce de Leon, the Spanish explorer, to land near the present site of St. Augustine. His rediscovery of Florida in 1513 was on Easter Sunday, hence the name, which is from Pascua Florida or Flowered Passover, which is the Spanish for Easter Sunday.

Strangers and visitors are cordially invited to these services.

9TH ST. METHODIST CHURCH.

J. W. Curi Pastor.

We will have a Home Coming service Sunday morning. We are very anxious to have every member present.

The sermon will be in keeping with the Easter occasion.

The public is invited.

WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN

L. F. Goodwin, pastor.

The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

All the services will be in keeping with the Easter season.

Attention is called to the fact that this is the closing Sunday of the church year. Let every member meet his obligations. We welcome all to our services.

NEW TABERNACLE

Service at 7:30 Sunday night. Subject: "The Resurrection".

The only proper explanation of Christianity today is the resurrection of Christ you are cordially invited to attend. Mr. Mitchell will sing, "Just for Today."

DECATUR FIRST METHODIST

Sunday, March 27, G. M. Davenport, pastor.

Preaching 11 a. m. by the pastor.

Subject, "The Fact of Immortality."

Special Easter music. The entire membership of the church is urged to attend this Easter service. The public is invited.

Preaching at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. N. P. McGlawn.

Be one to increase our evening service attendance.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

J. H. McWhirter, Minister.

We expect a goodly number of our own folks out for the sun rise prayer meeting, if not, we will be disappointed. This is needful, remember. Our Lord rose up a great while before day and went out in the open to pray. We invite all who will to have fellowship with us in Christ at this early meeting.

We will have the largest attendance at Bible school we have had for many months, 9:45 exactly. Church hour of worship, 11:00 and subject: "Things that Depend on the Resurrection." The Endeavor will have a larger attendance than ever, 6:30. Evening subject: "The great decision."

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH

11:00 a. m. Special Easter music and Evangelistic sermon "Risen But Not Recognized."

7:30 p. m. Evangelistic sermon on "His Hands and His Side" Chorus and male quartet.

Monday, 7:30 p. m. address by Dr. E. Y. Mullins.

DECATUR BAPTIST CHURCH

11 a. m. Special Easter program.

2:30 p. m. Sunbeams.

6:30 p. m. Special B. Y. P. U. program.

7:30 p. m. Sermon, "The Bride of the Lamb."

Some Easter anthems at evening service also.

Funeral of Charles Lanier, at 2:30 p. m.

FIRST BAPTIST, ALBANY

R. F. Stuckey pastor.

9:45 Sunday School, (Missionary Program.)

11 a. m. Sermon on Missions.

130 p. m. Sunbeams, (Special Program.) Mrs. J. T. Steavens leader.

2:15 p. m. Junior B. Y. P. U. Weller Fields, leader.

6 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. Elton Johnson Pres.

7 p. m. Sermon, on "The Resurrection."

Special Music conducted by J. W. McCall and C. L. Buck.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

East Jackson St., Albany opposite East Ward School.

Take Loop car East to Maple street and walk one block to right.

Bible School, 10 a. m.

You'll enjoy these classes.

Let's all be present and on time.

Preaching by J. Petty Ezell, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject "What Must I do to be Saved?" Preaching at Hartsville, Church of Christ. 1:50 p. m. We welcome all.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

"If eyes were made for seeing,
Then Beauty is its own excuse for being"
—Ralph Waldo Emerson

*Beauty has cast its spell
since Adam, and Beauty will cast its spell till Gabriel. All Printing is a part of the crowd clamoring for attention, yet
Beauty in Printing is apart from the crowd. Beauty beside the Beast only makes Beauty glow more radiantly.
Here, Beauty in Typography is first thought, second nature and sixth sense. We set Letterheads, Folders, Booklets, etc., which transmute into beautiful and appropriate type effects the spirit of a mercantile institution and the meaning of its merchandise. We take infinite pains, content to let the gains take care of themselves.*

Purina Chows Save Baby Chicks

DON'T try to raise these tender chicks on grains, stale bread, meal and such grain products, any more than you'd feed a baby cornbread. Such rations, being deficient in protein and minerals, result in bowel trouble, slow feathering and scrawny development.

Chicks Saved Pay Feed Bill

Suppose Purina Chows saved just two more chicks than out of every dozen hatched. That alone would pay your feed bill. But Purina Chows do more than just save chicks.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., March 25.

The Alabama Public Service Commission, will on Monday commence hearings on the petition of the furnace interests of the Birmingham districts against all the railroads operating in his district.

During the operation of the railroads by the government, Director General McAdoo issued an order that gave the carriers an increased rate on iron ore, limestone, coal and coke. The furnace interests seek to have the rate, which they claim is exorbitant, reduced.

GERMAN LOTTERY SCHEME IS REVEALED

(International News Service)

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 24.

The City of Manchester has been flooded with German lottery appeals coming from Earnest Schultz, Berlin, Germany.

The communications have been sent to all sorts of people, including ministers and lawyers, as well as workers in the shops and mills. No attempts are made to disguise the fact that it is a lottery, the capital prize being named and directions given for forwarding money. The latter has been reported to the postal authorities by Postmaster Willis.

No orders have been yet received in regard to the lottery mail at the local post office.

HAD MODEL HUSBAND BUT HE WAS ROUGH

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 26.—Clement Fabulick was a model husband, but he had one decided failing—"an ungovernable temper," according to his wife, Mrs. Annie Fabulick.

A few days ago Mrs. Fabulick stood up in Judge Jesse Baldwin's Divorce Court. Her nose was almost entirely missing.

"He bit it off," she explained, adding that Fabulick now is in Joliet for his little act.

Mrs. Fabulick was given her marital freedom.

All committees in Albany in the "Cleaner Town" contest are requested to begin work Monday morning. (Adv.)
